

eToro announces Singapore expansion with activation of CMS licence, extending global footprint

July 16, 2025

SINGAPORE, JULY 16, 2025: Trading and investing platform eToro has announced it has received and activated its Capital Markets Services licence from the Monetary Authority of Singapore (MAS), marking the company's Singapore expansion.

Yoni Assia, Co-Founder & CEO, eToro said: "This is an important milestone for eToro. Singapore is one of the most dynamic financial markets in Asia-Pacific and a gateway to global capital flows. By activating our CMS licence, we are advancing our mission to open the world's markets, connect investors to leading voices, and give everyone the tools they need to grow their knowledge and wealth. We're proud to be part of Singapore's fintech ecosystem and look forward to continuing to work closely with regulators, while investing in local talent and partnerships as we grow across the region."

The CMS licence will allow eligible retail investors in Singapore to access stocks from more than 20 of the world's leading stock exchanges, exchange-traded funds, and derivatives on eToro's social investing platform.

The announcement follows the appointment of Yaki Razmovich as Managing Director of eToro Singapore and Asia, who will be responsible for building eToro's franchise in Singapore and further expanding its global footprint in Asia.

Yaki Razmovich, Managing Director of eToro Singapore and Asia, said: "This achievement underscores our commitment to expanding our footprint in the APAC region. We are excited to be part of this dynamic market and to contribute to its growth by providing investors in Singapore with access to a wide range of financial instruments. Our goal is to empower new and experienced investors alike through eToro's unique products and user-friendly platform. We look forward to welcoming them to our vibrant, global community of 40 million registered users."

On eToro, users can view other investors' portfolios and statistics, and interact with them to exchange ideas and discuss strategies. In addition, users can practice trading using eToro's Virtual Portfolio and access thousands of free financial education resources in the eToro Academy.
